

MY THOUGHTS

Activity overview: In this activity, you will brainstorm ways you can apply what you've learned to your own classroom.

Directions: Reflect on what you've learned about using special equipment to increase a child's ability to participate. Use the space below to plan how you will use this information.

How can I use what I have learned?

Who or what do I need to help me?